Genoa, October 19.

ON the 15th Inſtant arrived here, in a Spaniſh Ship from Cagliari, 180 Imperialiſts, ſome of them being Officers, the reſt Soldiers, of the Garriſon which defended Cagliari. By this Ship we received a Journal from the Spaniſh Camp, of what paſſed from the 11th to the 22d of laſt Month, which relates, 'That the Marqueſs de Lede having formed the Siege, 'the Troops were obliged to keep in the 'Lines 12 Days without any military Operation, except the throwing in of 'ſome Bombs, for want of Faſcines which 'the Seamen of the Fleet were employed to cut and make in the Neighbourhood of Palafino, it being neceſſary to 'attack the Caſtle and the Lower Town 'in Form, in which were the Marqueſs 'de Rubi, the Marqueſs della Guardia, 'the Count de St. Antonio, the Marqueſs 'de Pes, the Count de St. Martino, and 'other Partiſans of the Houſe of Auſtria, 'with 400 Horſe of the Regiment of Carreras, and the ordinary Garriſon of 300 'Foot, as alſo a Company of Miquelets, 'Catalonians, Majorcans and Valencians, 'with a few of the Militia of the Country, who all ſeemed determined to defend themſelves to the laſt Extremity. 'On the 12th of September, 200000 'Faſcines having been brought to the 'Camp, the Seamen were ſet to work 'to raiſe a Battery of four Guns againſt 'the Bulwark of Darſina, and the Line 'was extended towards the Caſtle della Conteſſa in order to open the 'Trenches on that Side: But the Grenadiers ordered on this Service were repulſed by the Fire of four Cannon loaded with Cartridge-Shot, by which a Captain and four Men were killed and five 'wounded. On the 13th ſeveral Villages 'ſubmitted to the Obedience of the King 'of Spain, as did alſo the Archbiſhop of 'Cagliari, the Marqueſs of Villarios, 'the Family of Maſſony, and others. 'The ſame Day arrived in a Ship from 'Genoa, the Marqueſs of St. Filippo, 'and was lodged in the Marqueſs de 'Lede's Quarters in the Centre of the 'Lines. That Evening Lieutenant-General Almendara and Major-General 'de Lede, commanded at the Opening 'of the Trenches againſt a Curtain of 'the Works on the Eaſt-Side, without 'any Loſs. On the 14th the Approaches were continued. That Day 'came Advice, that the Marqueſſes de 'Montnegro and Solenimy, the Barons 'of Sorzo and Oſſi, and other Gentlemen, had formed a Conſpiracy to ſurprize and kill Sig. Benites the Governour of Saſſari, and to proclaim King 'Philip; but being diſcovered by one 'of the Conſpirators, named Don Gravino de Lipari, the Governour called 'his Garriſon to Arms, and took ſome 'Priſoners, but others made their Eſcape. 'Twas alſo adviſed, that in ſeveral 'Parts of Upper Sardinia the People 'had riſen and declared for the King 'of Spain; to encourage which Revolt, 'the Marqueſs of St. Filippo diſpatched 'a Gentleman, named Don Nicholas 'Fondini, with 12 Letters, which 'twas 'hoped might influence great Part of 'Sardinia to ſubmit to the King's Obedience; and to ſupport thoſe who 'might riſe, four Gallies and two Men 'of War were ordered to Porto Torre. 'That Evening the Marqueſs de St. Vincenzo, Major General, commanded at 'relieving the Trenches. On the 15th 'the Approaches were carried on, with 'the Loſs of an Officer and three Soldiers wounded. The Bombs did great 'Execution on the Houſes of the Town. 'The Trenches were relieved by the 'Count de Montmar, Major General. 'On the 16th arrived from Barcelona 16 'Tartans and two Men of War, with 'the Regiment of Horſe of the 'Marqueſs de Villa Allgre, and the 'Regiment of Foot of Baſilicata, 'by which the Camp was reinforced to 8000 Foot and 800 Horſe, 'without reckoning the Men belonging to the Fleet, who by the Command 'of the Marquis Mari were very ſerviceable on Shore; alſo by the Vigilance of that Marqueſs, ſeveral Prizes 'were taken at Sea. That Evening Major 'General de Lede relieved the Trenches. 'On the 17th the Marqueſs de Rubi cauſed 'the Suburbs of Villanuova with the Convent called il Gieſu de Padri Oſſervanti, 'to be burnt, in order to lay all open 'before the Walls: And then obſerving 'that our Approaches were advanced 'within Piſtol-Shot of the Place, the 'ſaid Marqueſs retired out of it with '150 Horſe and ſome Gentlemen, leaving the Command to the Marqueſs 'della Guardia and Collonel Carreras; 'ſoon after which moſt of the reſt of 'the Cavalry fled alſo out of the Place. 'Upon Notice of which on the 18th, 'the Marqueſs de Lede detached the

'Count
